WHO SAID THIS?

Two different true stories...
Two different players.

Which one is Dor Slinkard
and which is Catherine Hayward?

GET INTO GOLF IS CERTAINLY GETTING LADIES INTO GOLF...

Kay, Vicki, Phil Smith (Paula's husband) and Wendy are conducting the Get Into Golf program every Monday for 14 ladies who are new to golf. They are very keen and have learnt about GASS (grip, aim, stance and swing) with half swing irons and putters. Next week we're getting into full swing clubs and bunkers. A chip and putt competition at the end of each session has them all lifting their competitive spirits in order to win a Mars Bar. (Already we have enquiries for next year.) Soon we'll be looking for players to play a few holes with our beginners to help with etiquette and simple rules.

PRESENTATION DAY LUNCHEON

Tuesday 28th November from 11.30

$30

When I worked in England, I worked in an oil fired power station for 23 years. I was on the Health and Safety Committee and we all needed to go and inspect the tunnel that ran under water to Southampton. We were looking for H&S issues that could cause an accident and injure workers. Talk about scary.

I rode my pony into the Murrumbidgee River only to be swept away. Luckily I was saved by a large tree branch encroaching into the river on a bend. I managed to escape the fast flowing river – and so did the pony.

Confessions

As a couple approaches the altar, the groom tells his wife-to-be, "Honey, I've got something to confess: I'm a golf nut,
and every chance I get, I'll be playing golf!"

"Since we're being honest," replies the bride, "I have to tell you that I'm a hooker."

The groom replies, "That's okay, honey.
You just need to learn to keep your head down and your left arm straight."
